

AIHEC Student Research Symposium

April 5, 2005
Taos Room

Schedule

- 10 a.m. Welcome and Overview of Student Research Symposium
*Dr. Karen Gayton Swisher, President,
Haskell Indian Nations University, Lawrence, KS*
- 10:15-11:00 a.m. "The Miwoks Fight for Acceptance"
*Tanya Maile Parker
Sinte Gleska University, Mission, SD*
- 11:05-11:50 a.m. "Remote Sensing and GIS for Land Resource Management on the Standing Rock Sioux Reservation"
*Derek Stonefish
Sitting Bull College, Ft. Yates, ND*
- 12:00-1:00 p.m. Break for Lunch
- 1:00-1:45 p.m. "History and Implications of Using Remote Sensing Contrast to the Devils Lake Groundwater"
*Mandi Owlboy
Candeska Cikana Community College, Ft. Totten, ND*
- 1:50 -2:35 p.m. "Ask Henning"
*Steven Painte Walker
United Tribes Technical College, Bismarck, ND*
- 2:40-3:25 p.m. "Studying Lake Sakakawea Using Landsat"
*Sheyenne Baker
Ft. Berthold Community College, New Town, ND*
- 3:30-4:15 p.m. "The Tribal Approach to the World and the Inadequacy of Western Science: A Complete Alternative"
*Denny Gayton
Haskell Indian Nations University, Lawrence, KS*
- 4:20-5:10 p.m. "The Historical Development of the Lakota Language"
*Albert Whitehat, Sr. Duane Hollow Horn Bear, Francis Cutt,
Ione Quigley
Sinte Gleska University, Mission, SD*