

INSTITUTE OF AMERICAN INDIAN ARTS
OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS, RECORDS & ENROLLMENT

December 5, 2007

Dear High School Representative:

You and your students are invited to the Institute of American Indian Arts portfolio day, to be held on Friday, March 14, 2008, at 10:00 am - 1:00 pm. Your students will get critical advise on their art work as well as creating a professional looking portfolio, which is essential for all aspiring artists. Students can bring photographs, slides, digital media or actual art work (preferred) in the following areas:

Studio Arts

Two Dimensional Arts: pencil drawings, watercolors, acrylic paintings, photography, oil paintings, prints, illustrations, pen & ink drawings, etc.

Three Dimensional Arts: sculpture, ceramics, jewelry, traditional arts, multi-media, etc.

New Media Arts

Graphic Design: posters, business cards, greeting cards, etc.

Motion Design: animation, 3D modeling, etc.

Creative Writing

Any written material including, poetry, short stories, journalism, etc.

The Institute offers two and four year degrees in Studio Arts, Creative Writing, New Media Arts, Museum Studies, Indigenous Liberal Studies and Native American Studies. This is a great opportunity to talk to the faculty and guest alumni artist, about your art work and future job opportunities. Please complete the inclosed RSVP form and return it as soon as possible. Morning refreshments and lunch will be provided for all participants at no cost.

Mark your calendars, and I look forward to hearing from you. Don't hesitate to contact me should you have any questions. I can be reached at 1-800-804-6422 or ldesjarlais@iaia.edu.

Sincerely,

Larry J. DesJarlais, Jr.
